8.1.2002.

Shri A. Sinha, counsel for the petitioner.

Shri A.Naved, counsel for the State.

Heard on I.A.No.116/2002 for amendment.

The application is allowed.

Let necessary amendment be incorporated.

The main grievance is that whereas proceedings are going on before the Collector at Raipur, the licence of the writ petitioner to run a petrol pump has been suspended by Order dated 2.1.2002, in case No.5/C/150/2001-2002.

According to Shri Sinha, said relief can be allowed by way of final orders. Suspension of licence is also final punishment apart from another mode of punishment which is cancellation of licence. It is submitted that order of suspension may be stayed and the Collector may decide the matter finally. The petrol and Diesel which ~~was~~ were seized from the petitioner were released to the petitioner on Supradnama. After order of suspension was issued, the petitioner has been directed to deposit a cash amounting to Rs.2,89,000/-App. as costs of petrol and diesel. It is submitted that before the matter is decided finally, this direction to deposit the said amount of money may also be stayed.

	-2- On careful perusal of pleadings and after hearing counsel for both the parties, I am of the opinion that it would be reasonable and just to dispose of this writ petition at this stage as follows: i). The impugned order of suspension issued on 2.1.2002 -Annexure-P/7 shall remain stayed until the matter is finally decided by the learned Collector. ii). Further direction to deposit a sum of Rs.2,89,000/-App. shall also remain stayed until final orders are passed by the learned Collector. Certified copy as per rules.
